

Sermon: Doing All Things in the Name of Christ
Scripture: Colossians 3:1-17 (text v. 17)

Introduction

- I. All of life included, nothing excluded (Mark 12:30):
- II. Ways this verse has been misinterpreted, abused:
- III. Doing all things in the name of Christ defined and illustrated:
- IV. Additional practical application of doing all things in the name of Christ:
  - A. Requires our knowing what is agreeable to Him, the Scriptures.
  - B. Means we live under His Lordship, as those belonging and dedicated to Him (I Cor. 10:31; Rom. 14:7,23; II Cor. 5:14,15).
  - C. May sometimes be costly, painful.
  - D. Can turn common activities into holy acts.
  - E. Can mean some things are good and holy that others consider bad, unclean (I Tim. 6:17; Heb. 13:4).
- V. Conclusion and giving thanks:
